
A hurry up hurricane whips me round and round with winds that rush me past deadlines,
winds that thrust me past headlines.
The eddies of demands and decisions
strangle my life-breath:
What college, what job, what class rank?
Stop the war!
Where's your pass?
Catch that bus!
There never is time to catch my breath.
Busily, dizzily, the winds whirl clockwise
from 8:40 to 3:10,
round and round again.

Stampedes of wild animals chase me in circles:
"Black Power!" roar the Panthers.
"Give 'em the ax!" snarl the Tigers.
And the pigs and Androcles' Lion
yelp along in unison.
Warning bells and busy signals
pound out our spirits,
and only chips of people remain,
for who are you?

A Sophomore Guide to Punctuation

Lesson# 1:

Question Mark — an indication of doubt or bewilderment.

Examples:

A. Report to Mr. Kingsbury's office? Where's Mr. Kingsbury's office?

B. Is L.G.I. the name of a spaceship?

C. You mean we have to write a theme every week?

D. R? What day is R?

E. Excuse me, could you please tell me where in the world I could find the gym? .... Did you say I take a left around the study carrels?

F. 244? I thought the rooms only went up to 234?

G. Do you think maybe I could share your locker until I figure out how to open mine?

Lesson# 2:

Exclamation Point — an indication of surprise.

Example:

A. WOW!

1. ju-nior (ju nyer) adj.

    1. pertaining to a body of students that constitute the class of '72
    2. of or relating to a specific species of drivers' licenses
    3. marked by a tendency to take tests on Saturday mornings, esp. sunny Saturday mornings, in Spring
    4. of or relating to a certain Prom at the Treadway Inn

2. ju-nior (ju nyer) noun.

    1. any of a genus of students that thrives on doughnuts and exhibits a desire to have his/her ring "turned"
    2. a member of a particular society that rises at 5 a.m. to see cherry blossoms
    3. archaic: one who is in the process of preparing for college
    4. the quality or state of waiting just one more year

Death, Be Not Proud
by John Donne

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou are not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go —
Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And death shall be no more: Death, thou shalt die.

Study Calls Public Schools 'Oppressive' and 'Joyless'

Report, Commissioned by the Carnegie Corporation, Finds That Children Receive Inadequate Education

By WILLIAM K. STEVENS

In an unusually outspoken indictment of the nation's public schools, a three-and-a-half-year study commissioned by the Carnegie Corporation has found that most schools not only fail to educate children adequately but also are "oppressive," "grim" and "joyless."

IN MEMORIAM

Barter

Life has loveliness to sell,
All beautiful and splendid things,
Blue waves whitened on a cliff,
Soaring fire that sways and sings,
And children's faces looking up
Holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell,
Music like a curve of gold,
Scent of pine trees in the rain,
Eyes that love you, arms that hold,
And for your spirit's still delight,
Holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost;
For one white singing hour of peace
Count many a year of strife well lost,
And for a breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been, or could be.

COMPLIMENTS
of

1970-1971
STUDENT COUNCIL

We have tried our best to promote understanding within the school

For three long years, we dreamt the impossible dream,
fought the unbeatable foe,
bore the unbearable sorrow,
we ran where the brave dare not go,
and
WE FINALLY MADE IT
WE GOT OUT OF THIS PLACE

First and Foremost

THE CLASS OF '71

THE 1970-71 STUDENT COUNCIL

Rejoice, rejoice
We have no choice
So when we're gone,

CARRY ON
